

The Robbers Table

length 12km
(Includes Lisnahanrey &
eskeradooey public rights of way)
Approximate Time 3hr 30mins

The Start and Finish point for this accredited waymarked walk is Gortin Glen Forest Park (admission charges apply). On exiting the Forest Park, turn left onto the B48 Glenpark Road and after 50m turn right onto Lisnahanrey Road. At the junction of Castleroddy Road (approx. 1km from main road) stands the former Castleroddy Old National School. On the gable wall facing the road you will notice a weathered stone inscription "Castleroddy NS" with the letter "n" carved backwards. After another 1km turn right up the laneway (the 5th from the main road) marked by the sign "Lisnahanrey Public Right of Way" and continue to follow the waymarker posts north over the western slopes of Curraghchosaly Mountain. At the summit take in superb views (weather permitting) of the Bluestack and Derryveagh Mountains of Donegal to the west and the High Sperrins to the north east then travel down the northern side. At the bottom of the lane turn left onto Liscabble Road, after 1km turn left again up the lane marked "Eskeradooey Public Right of Way" and climb south over Ballynatubbrit Mountain passing The Robbers Table, the site where supposed local seventeenth century Highwaymen (Rapparees as they were known) met up to divide their spoils after raiding the postal carriages that traversed this upland landscape. Continue southward down through the farmyard back onto the Lisnahanrey Road, then turn left to walk the 2km back to Gortin Glen Forest Park.
